Fishing Havens

Cumberland County boasts a diverse range of fishing environments, each teeming with its own unique species. Whether you prefer casting your line in secluded lakes, winding rivers, or serene creeks, the county has something to offer.

Lakes

- Lake Sara: This sprawling lake is renowned for its excellent bass fishing, attracting anglers from far and wide. With its crystal-clear waters and abundant vegetation, Lake Sara offers prime spots for bass, crappie, and catfish.
- Greenup Lake: Nestled near the town of Greenup, this quiet lake is perfect for fishing from a boat or kayak. Greenup Lake is known for its plentiful stock of largemouth bass, bluegill, and channel catfish.

Rivers

- Embarras River: This scenic river meanders through the heart of Cumberland County, providing a picturesque backdrop for fishing. Kayaking and canoeing are popular activities on the Embarras River, allowing you to combine fishing with a leisurely float.
- Little Wabash River: Known for its strong currents and deep pools, the Little Wabash River is a great spot for fishing for catfish, bass, and carp. Its banks are lined with dense vegetation, offering ideal hiding spots for these elusive species.

Creeks

- Martins Creek: This picturesque creek flows through the Martins Creek Recreation Area, providing easy access for fishing. Martins Creek is known for its abundance of smallmouth bass, rock bass, and sunfish.
- Lacys Creek: Running through the Lacys Creek Recreation Area, this creek is another excellent option for creek fishing. Lacys Creek is home to a variety of fish species, including bass, crappie, and bluegill.

Floating Delights

The Embarras River is the undisputed star for floating in Cumberland County. Its gentle currents and scenic surroundings make it a perfect destination for kayakers and canoeists of all levels. As you float down the river, you'll encounter secluded beaches, lush forests, and an abundance of wildlife.

Several access points are available along the Embarras River, allowing you to customize your float trip. Popular put-in points include:

- Martins Creek Recreation Area: This access point is located a short drive from Greenup and provides ample parking and restroom facilities.
- Lacys Creek Recreation Area: This access point is situated near the town of Lacys Creek and offers a scenic spot to launch your watercraft.
- Parke's Landing: This access point is located near the town of Casey and provides a convenient put-in point for longer float trips.

Tips for Success

To maximize your fishing or floating experience in Cumberland County, here are some helpful tips:

Fishing

- Research different fishing spots: Before you head out, take some time to research the various lakes, rivers, and creeks in Cumberland County. Determine which species of fish are most prevalent in each location and match your gear accordingly.
- Check fishing regulations: Be sure to familiarize yourself with the fishing regulations for Cumberland County before casting your line. This includes obtaining a valid fishing license and adhering to size limits and creel limits.
- Pack essential gear: Don't forget to bring all the necessary fishing gear, including rods, reels, tackle, bait, and lures. Also, consider bringing sunscreen, insect repellent, and rain gear.

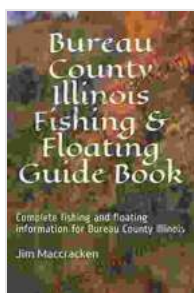

Floating

- Choose the right watercraft: Kayaks and canoes are the most popular watercrafts for floating the Embarras River. Choose a watercraft that is appropriate for your skill level and the length of your float trip.
- Check water conditions: Before floating, always check the water conditions and weather forecast. Avoid floating during periods of high water or strong currents.
- Bring safety gear: Always wear a life jacket while floating. Additionally, consider bringing a whistle or air horn for signaling in case of an emergency.

Cumberland County, Illinois, is a veritable playground for fishing and floating enthusiasts. With its pristine waters, diverse fish populations, and tranquil Embarras River, the county offers an unforgettable outdoor adventure for visitors of all ages.

Whether you're an experienced angler or a novice floater, this comprehensive guide has provided you with the essential information you need to plan a successful trip. So pack your gear, grab your watercraft, and embark on an unforgettable journey into the heart of Cumberland County.

Tight lines and happy floating!
