What to See and Do on Skye

There's no shortage of things to see and do on Skye. Whether you're interested in hiking, biking, kayaking, or simply soaking up the scenery, you'll find plenty to keep you occupied.

Some of the most popular attractions on Skye include:

- The Cuillin Hills: A dramatic range of mountains that are perfect for hiking and climbing.
- Loch Coruisk: A beautiful loch that is surrounded by towering mountains.

- The Fairy Pools: A series of waterfalls and pools that are said to be home to fairies.
- The Old Man of Storr: A towering rock formation that is one of the most iconic landmarks on Skye
- The Quiraing: A series of dramatic landslides that have created a stunning landscape.
- Dunvegan Castle: A historic castle that is home to the Clan MacLeod.

Local Tips From JB

Throughout the book, JB shares his local tips and knowledge about the best places to visit, eat, and stay on Skye. He also provides insider information on hidden gems that most tourists never get to see.

Where to Stay on Skye

There are a variety of accommodation options available on Skye, from hostels and guesthouses to B&Bs and self-catering cottages. If you're looking for a place to stay that is close to the main attractions, consider booking a room in Portree, the largest town on Skye.

How to Get to Skye

The Isle of Skye is located off the west coast of Scotland. The nearest airport is Inverness Airport, which is about a 2-hour drive from Skye. You can also take a ferry from mainland Scotland to Skye. The ferry crossing takes about 45 minutes.

Planning Your Trip to Skye

The best time to visit Skye is during the summer months, when the weather is at its best. However, Skye is a beautiful place to visit all year round. If you're visiting during the off-season, be sure to pack for all types of weather.

When planning your trip to Skye, be sure to book your accommodation in advance, especially if you're traveling during the peak season. You'll also want to allow plenty of time to explore the island. Skye is a large island, and there's a lot to see and do.
