What's Inside The Children of Thanksgiving?

The Children of Thanksgiving is a collection of 12 heartwarming stories, each of which teaches a valuable lesson about the true meaning of Thanksgiving. The stories are written by a variety of authors, and they feature a diverse cast of characters. Some of the stories are set in the past, while others are set in the present day. But all of the stories share a common theme: the importance of gratitude.

Here is a brief summary of each story:

- "The First Thanksgiving" by Sarah Josepha Hale: This story tells the traditional story of the first Thanksgiving, when the Pilgrims and the Wampanoag Indians shared a feast of friendship.
- "The Turkey's Tale" by Alice Cary: This story is told from the perspective of a turkey who is about to be eaten for Thanksgiving dinner. The turkey tells his life story, and he explains why he is grateful for the opportunity to give his life so that others can enjoy a delicious meal.
- "The Little Match Girl" by Hans Christian Andersen: This classic story tells the tale of a poor little girl who sells matches on the streets on Christmas Eve. The girl is cold and hungry, but she dreams of a better life. On Christmas Eve, she sees a vision of her grandmother, who tells her that she will soon be in heaven. The girl dies peacefully in her sleep, and she is reunited with her grandmother in heaven.

- "The Gift of the Magi" by O. Henry: This story tells the tale of a young couple who are very poor. They both want to buy each other Christmas gifts, but they don't have any money. The husband sells his watch to buy his wife a comb, and the wife sells her hair to buy her husband a watch chain. On Christmas morning, they both realize that they have given each other the perfect gift.
- "The Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens: This classic story tells the tale of Ebenezer Scrooge, a miserly old man who is visited by three ghosts on Christmas Eve. The ghosts show Scrooge the error of his ways, and he becomes a kinder and more generous person.
- "The Nutcracker" by E.T.A. Hoffmann: This story tells the tale of a young girl named Clara who receives a nutcracker doll for Christmas. The nutcracker doll comes to life and takes Clara on a magical journey to the Land of Sweets.
