In the face of unimaginable suffering, one young woman fights for survival and dignity.

What You Wish For Darfur is the heartbreaking and inspiring true story of Halima Bashir, a young woman who survived the Darfur genocide. Set against the backdrop of a conflict that has claimed the lives of hundreds of thousands of people, this book tells the story of Halima's resilience and hope in the face of unimaginable suffering.

Halima was just 16 years old when the Janjaweed militias attacked her village in Darfur. She was raped, beaten, and left for dead. But Halima refused to give up. She escaped to a refugee camp in Chad, where she began to rebuild her life.

In the camp, Halima met other survivors of the genocide. Together, they formed a support group and began to advocate for peace and justice. Halima's story is a powerful reminder of the human cost of war and the importance of resilience and hope.
